

Solution to Acrostic #3 – December 2002

George Orwell, Animal Farm, Harcourt, Brace & World, 1946

Napoleon was now never spoken of simply as "Napoleon." He was always referred to . . . as "our leader, Comrade Napoleon," and the pigs liked to invent for him such titles as Father of All Animals, Terror of Mankind, Protector of the Sheep-fold, Ducklings' Friend, and the like.

- A GR(E'EN+H)OUSE
- B EYE OF THE STORM (The Mets of yore anagram)
- C ON THE WAY (they won anagram)
- D R+OOT O(F ALL) EV(I)L (love too anagram)
- E GOLD+EN OL+DIES (Lone reversal)
- F ELEPHANTS (planes the anagram)
- G O+PEN PLA+N (pal anagram)
- H ROMAN CANDLES (Nero's calm and anagram)
- I WHORLED (world homophone)
- J END+PAPERS
- K LAC+K+LUSTER
- L LOC(K) OF HAIR (a rich fool anagram)
- M ASTERISK (hidden in Disaster is killed)
- N NAPPED (double def.)
- O IN+FORM+A+TI+ON
- P MAKES (OFF) WITH (white mask anagram)
- Q AFTER + THE F(AC)T
- R L.A.+N+DOWNERS
- S FRIENDS (without r becomes fiends)
- T AVOIRDUPOIS (avoid spurio(us) anagram)
- U RAN+K+LED
- V MAN+S(I)ON